LIBERTY UNION HIGH SCHOOL

The Annual Staff of LUHS
Faces of Homecoming

Christi Plum, Dan Fettig, and Nicole Royer

Karen Kalinowski, Jeff Perlichak, and Carlos Ortega

Michelle Vestal celebrates a Sr. victory

Mr. Paul Urenda joins the tug-of-war.

Christie Coalter shows pride in her class.

Sally Bickford denies any relationship with Barbie.

Scott McConologue, and Larry Puente are so studious!
Karrie Stoll, all dressed up, and no beach to go, ponders over the wave report.

Andrea Rivera works on the frosh float.

Janette Robinson looks out for cowboys.

Laurie Peters tries to set new fashion standards.

GEE! It must be automatic.

Seniors squeeze the Charmin. AAAAAH!
Students Show Different Interests

It's a jam for this Junior. Kami Mendes gets ready for Volleyball.

Jeff Carpenter is ASB President.

Don Blair utilizes the Lion Information Center.

Dave Sadler aides in pyramid building.

Joe Nelson catches a snooze in Pre-Calc.

Byron Talman and friend entertain in Brown Bag.

Pedal! Ruben Garcia tries his hardest.
Anna Graen is snapped opening her locker. Two Seniors enjoy sitting together.

Brian Soczka and Carlos Ortega walk to class. Stuffing their faces, these two ladies eat a snack.
Puzzled, Carin Telle looks up at the yearbook photographer as she sits on the lawn near the cafeteria. Concentrating, Brent Jordan watches the demonstration during an art class. Surprised, Nicole Souza glances up as her picture is snapped in the Student Leadership class. Enjoying the warm sunshine during September, this group of seniors relax at the tables on the lawn area. Talking with a friend, Jason Langlois confers with David McCorkell on the sidewalk just to the south of the new Science Building. Smiling for the camera, Donny Meckes looks up from his poster chores with Buck Holmes during their leadership class period 7. Happy Camper! Tara Laudenslager displays a cheerful attitude not only for the camera but also for people in general. Who me? Eric Taylor grabs his tenor saxophone and heads to a practice room before the band starts practice on Ohmsted Field during football or "marching" season. Kicking back Anabella Gonzalez drinks a caffeine free Diet Pepsi during lunch; she enjoys the "lunch-bunch" in Mr. Bill Batze's classroom on a daily basis. Ouch! Aaron Arellanes and Nate Raquel compare Snoopy bandages after giving both a blood sample and a pint during the fall drive on our campus.

Some teachers allowed extra credit for donating. Sitting pretty, Octavia Poole checks out the one of the older cameras that belongs to yearbook. She was even happier when using the brand new Minolta Maxxim 7000 purchased in September. Sleeping, Mark Gursky catches forty winks the week before Homecoming. He was Commissioner of Clubs and Activities as well as head of the Homecoming Committee.

Breaking tradition with the '90 Lion, the assistant editors (no editor-in-chief this year) chose to combine the old and the new into one theme and use it throughout the opening. Starting with a student designed cover (and back cover), the staff lead the reader on a journey through the '89-90 school year. Tieing the opening section together was a solid gold line and the triangle shapes of pictures and layouts, the book attempted to be "Contemporary and Traditional". Staying with tradition, Homecoming continued to play a vital part of the opening as it has in the past. Combining both elements of the theme of "Contemporary and Traditions" the staff used more pictures of student life than ever before.

The LION '90 set the tone for the new decade as it looked back at "Traditions" and also looked forward to the "Contemporary".
Felipe Argueta and Monica Nickle proudly stroll arm and arm.

John Hancock and Grissell Barros still find a quiet moment.

Jeff Carpenter and Nicole Souza were in the top five.

Mike Amador and Amy Del Chiaro were voted king and queen.
Katie Barnes was in the top ten. Three lovely ladies are selected as top ten.

Sally Bickford says surf's up, to the top ten. Juniors present the Falcon top ten.
Amy DelChiaro dresses up on a spirit day.

Dana Duncan is led by Mike Amador.

Derek Poertner plays a solo.

Andrew Bevill assists Katie Barnes.

Tara Laudenslager dances at a rally.

Nicole Ditmars talks to friend.

CLASS OF 1990-SENIORS

Class unity is a very important factor and depends on the personality of the class itself. When there is spirit among the individual students, all it takes is a little leadership and you can have a very successful class as a whole.

Greeted by advisors, Ms. Marian Canepa and Mr. Dennis Buckley, and led by Nicole Souza, president; Jeannine Cecchini, vice-president; Karen Lindsay, secretary; and Dave Sadler, treasurer; the Class of 1990 had enough of these qualities to accomplish big things in their four years at Liberty; those ranged from float competitions to academic and athletic awards.

As freshmen, they surprised a couple of other classes as they edged out both the seniors and sophomores to place second in the float competition at Homecoming. The class worked long and hard hours using the theme “Burn Benicia” to turn the 35' semi-trailer into a work of art.

From their very first year, the class goal was to build a large treasury for their senior year. They did this by hosting two candy sales, selling bumper stickers, and washing cars on the day of the Senior Ball.

Capturing first place in the float competition highlighted a successful sophomore year for the class. Led by Jeff Carpenter, president; Mike Davies, vice-president; Karen Lindsay, secretary, and Mark Gursky, treasurer; the class built an awesome float (this time on a 40' trailer) with the theme “Devour the Dons”.

With two candy sales, bumper stickers, and a highly successful Sophomore/Junior Prom, the class treasury continued to grow nicely. Combining with the Class of ‘89, the sophomores turned the cafeteria into a Madri Gras and used this at their theme. The Top Five consisted of Amy Del Chiaro, Tara Laudenslager, Sabrinä Pelletier, Nicole Souza, Dana Duncan, Ryan Bell, Jeff Carpenter, Mike Amador, Mark Gursky, and Jon Hancock. The tension mounted during the evening until Dana and Mike were announced as Queen and King.

Continuing with their third year at Liberty, the juniors were led by Tom Gregory, president; Mike Davies, vice-president; Nicole Souza, treasurer; and Karen Lindsay, secretary. Along with new officers, they also had another change when Mrs. Kaye Axelgard-Reeves joined Ms. Canepa as their second advisor.

Homecoming was a blast for the class that year as they once again built a humongous float to capture second place in the competition using the theme “Dump the Devils”. The class also performed the traditional Top Ten Skit and had the entire gym rolling with laughter.

The fund raisers consisted of two more candy sales, two car washes, and a Valentine Day carnation sale that raised over $1,000. The class also held two dances later in the year to again increase their already large treasury.

Sharing the responsibilities and rewards of all the hard work that went into the Sophomore/Junior Prom with the Class of ’91, the theme of “Ballroom Elegance” was carried out to its fullest potential with decorations completely transforming the cafeteria into a ballroom atmosphere. The prom was held April 22 and cost $30 per couple.

With June 16, 1989, gone, the Junior Class jumped into the new decade as the first Senior Class of the 90s and looking forward to the 21 Century and all that it would hold for them.

During their fourth and final year the mighty seniors were led by Aaron Arellanes, president; David Sadler, vice-president; Christa Van Huisen, treasurer; and Grissell Barros, secretary. The class continued to carry out their gigantic tradition of Homecoming floats. This time the theme was “Just Pluck It”. This was carried out by building a rather large falcon with a 35' wing-span; the wings also moved. It was announced as the only, fully mechanically op-erated float ever. The Senior Class took first this year. In addition to winning the float competition, the seniors also retained possession of the Spirit Jug.

The Homecoming Court consisted of Monica Nickle, Amy Del Chiaro, Dana Duncan, Karen Lindsay, Jeannine Cecchini, Robyn Standridge, Hilary Glaholt, Grissell Barros, Nicole Souza, Katie Barnes, Mike Amador, Chad Smith, Mark Miquex, John Rodriguez, Felipe Argueta, Rusty Erlich, Jon Hancock, Jeff Carpenter, Brent Jordan, and Mark Gursky. Amy and Mike were elected Queen and King.

Journeying to San Francisco and the Meredian Hotel near Moscone Center, the Class of ‘90 enjoyed a night on the town with their Senior Ball. The formal event, themed “Hold on to the Night”, delighted the seniors, their dates, and the chaperones in attendance.

On the Sunday before Graduation, the seniors held a baccalaureate service in the gym. Following graduation was a super all-night party in the cafeteria complex.

As Graduation drew nearer, the days grew longer but that wonderful Friday, June 15, finally arrived and the Class of ‘90 bid farewell to Liberty. They were led by Mike Davies, valedictorian; Jeff Carpenter, salutatorian; and Sabrina Pelletier, student speaker. Good-bye Class of 1990! Congratulations! Good Luck!
CLASS OF 1991 — Juniors

From the start the Juniors were busy. A few weeks into the school year the Junior Class officers consisting of Jennifer Heath, president; Scott Carpenter, vice-president; Tara Rosselli, treasurer; Shannon Elmore, secretary; and advisor Mark Gates convinced Debbie Strance to join the Junior Class as a second advisor, and she accepted.

Just before Homecoming came around the juniors started up again by winning the class yell at one of the first rallies of the year. Then at the Top Ten Rally the juniors put on the traditional Bottom Ten Skit; it was a huge hit as usual. For the float competition the Juniors came in a respectable second place with "Fry the Falcons".

After Homecoming the juniors put on a candy sale that helped raise money for the "Turn About Dance" in January. In March the Juniors had a jewelry sale that also brought in some dollars, this time for the Prom.

Before the Prom however the Juniors worked very hard, hand-in-hand with the Seniors, to convince the school board to continue allowing the seniors to go to Disneyland for Grad/Night. Their hard work convinced the school board to reconsider its strong position this year, although future trips to Grad/Night remained in question.

The Sophomore-Junior Prom took place in the Cafeteria on April 28 with the theme of "A Night in Paradise". Sophomores and juniors worked from 5 to 12 the night before, then people came back at 9 the next morning to finish decorating. These hard workers carried out the theme with white palm trees and green plants sitting all around. They had at one end of the transformed cafeteria a beautiful fountain. The D.J. was at the opposite end. There were tables outside in the quad and blue and white streamers and balloons everywhere. All of these decorations helped change the cafeteria into a luscious paradise fit for kings and queens.

As the end of the year came around the Juniors kept up their energy, thus making the whole year one huge accomplishment. The Class of '91 looked forward to their last year of high school and thought about what they could to make it even better.

CLASS OF 1992-Sophomores

With three candy sales, car washes, and a good-bye gram sale, the Sophomore Class moved closer to their goal of financial security and a super Senior Ball in '92.

Led by Monique Renslow, president; Christi Andronico, vice-president; Theresa Kortuem, secretary; and April Leibman, treasurer; and advised by Mr. Mike Jacobson and Mrs. Carolyn McLaughlin, the sophomores enjoyed their second year in high school.

Highlight for most sophomores came with the ordering of their class rings from Richard Dix of Josten's and then the "long" wait for them to arrive in the spring.

In the spring, the sophomores and juniors combined to turn the cafeteria into a "paradise" for the annual Sophomore/Junior Prom. The class worked both Friday evening and Saturday most of the day with the elaborate decorations. Ruling over the evening were Princess Christi Andronico and Prince Brian Daubin.

During Homecoming the sophomores worked hard to finish third in the float competition. They beat the frosh in the noontime volleyball contest and took the tug-of-war event on Homecoming Day. They also grabbed a couple of second places in noon-time activities.

Facing their Junior year, AP, the PSAT, and other activities and challenges, the sophomores had the satisfaction of knowing that they were "half-way" through their high school career.

CLASS OF 1993 FROSH

Breaking records from the start with the largest class to enter Liberty, 453 freshmen hit the campus in September and were faced with the challenge of both high school and additional graduation requirements (Health was a new one semester class added).

Advisors Mrs. Larraine Anderson and Mrs. Hilary Pedrotti helped the "newest kids on the block" with a great year along with officers Shandrea Broussard, president; Eric Taylor, vice-president; Lonnie Stanton, secretary; and Teresa Nickle, treasurer.

With two major fundraisers, the Class of '93 struggled to make money for future class activities. With two productive spring candy sales, the freshmen make some bucks to help pay for fines levied as a result of rally clean ups. The rest of the money made went into the account for future activities.

Homecoming presented a unique challenge for the frosh as they worked together to produce a Friday The 13th float. Playing the Falcons of College Park High School, the class depicted a large Lion chopping the head off the opponent's mascot. The float was entitled "Friday the 13th, Part '93" and gained fourth place for the class. Members were quick to remember that it was fun building their first high school float.

The frosh had a great first year and hoped to work even harder to excel in their journey through high school.

ACTIVITIES

From the first ever, on campus forensics tournament, to a special assembly for retiring principal Jack Ferrill, to the concluding Graduation on June 15, students and staff spent a busy year of activities on the Liberty campus.

Laurie Peters was crowned at the annual Barn Dance in the fall to start off a round of dances that included the Top Ten Dance, Sophomore/Junior Prom, the increasingly popular Halloween Dance, and ended with the Senior Ball in San Francisco on June 2. Also honored at dances were Christi Andronico and Brian Daubin at the Prom.

With Amy Del Chiaro and Mike Amador reigning at Homecoming, and the Varsity roaring to a huge victory over College Park, the Senior Class took advantage of their experience to build the first place float for the Parade as well as amassing the most points for the Spirit Trophy. Following the seniors in the float competition were the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen.

From the Close-up experience in January to Baccalaureate in June to two major plays and other events such as the Mock Trial, Academic Decathlon, Spelling Bee and Forensics Competition; students were on the go throughout the year. Highlighting the two music concerts in the spring were award winners Karen Necley, Jenny Lind Award; and Tom Proudfoot, John Phillip Souza Award.

Capping their high school career was Graduation on June 15 led by Mike Davies, valedictorian; Jeff Carpenter, salutatorian; and Sabrina Pelletier, student speaker. Celebrating four years of hard work and study, seniors, parents, teachers, and guests enjoyed the annual Awards Evening at the Delta Community Center. Contemporary, Traditions Sets Theme Contemporary! Traditions! To carry out this theme for the Lion '90, the staff chose a diamond pattern that started on the cover and was incorporated throughout the book. Pictures were cropped in a diamond shape, layouts were done in the diamond shape, and the diamond pattern bordered the division pages. Pictures were chosen to complement the theme. This page was added to express and explain the theme further. Each paired picture on this spread shows both the contemporary side and traditional side of Liberty.

From baseball to softball, from traditional theatre to Brown Bag, from old style sweaters to modern jerseys, the staff strove to illustrate our theme.

We have worked hard to bind this Lion '90 together with our theme Contemporary, Traditions.

Sincerely,
Lion Yearbook Staff

Champions! North Coast Champions! Not one team but two made it all the way to becoming North Coast Champions. Both the Wrestling and Softball Teams were highly successful for the Lions this past school year.

Four teams made it to the playoffs this year. Starting with Volleyball in the Fall, continuing with Wrestling and Girls' Basketball in the Winter, and crowned with a victory against Campolindo to win the Softball NCS Championship in the Spring.

Starting with soccer, football, cross country, and volleyball in the Fall, the lions faced rugged competition and were able to qualify the GIRLS' VARSITY VOLLEYBALL TEAM for the playoffs where they defeated Acalanes in the first round. With an 18-8 overall record (10-6 league), the girls named Nicki Ditmars and Neika Nevarez co-captains, Nicki, most inspirational; and Michelle Vestal and Nicki co-MVP. Scholar-athlete awards were given to ALL members of the team.

In football the Varsity was blessed with a returning line both offensively and defensively and won their opening game, dumped College Park 42-0 at Homecoming, and recognized the following players: Rick Gepilano, most valuable lineman; Donny Meckes, most valuable back (also leading rusher); and Johnny Rodriguez, and Jose Hernandez, most valuable players. All league selections were Rusty Ehrlich, Johnny Rodriguez, Mike Amador, Aaron Ganz, first team; Mike Amador, Rick Gepilano, second team; and Donny Meckes, Rich Guitrón, Jose Hernandez, honorable mention. Ryan Colcord was junior varsity MVP while Alex Oregel was given the scholar-athlete award.

This year the Lady Lions had one of their best basketball seasons in recent memory going 22-8 for the year and winning the Diablo division with a 15-1 record. The Lady lost the league championship to Campolindo but went on to NCS playoffs going 1-1. Like the communities surrounding it, Liberty High continued to grow and expand with great speed. With the completion of three permanent buildings, the Transition Program's two and the new Science Building, plus the start of the new Math Building, the looks of the campus were changing as were the communities it served.

During the Spring Break after Easter, the Library moved its collection of books to the Science Building as a temporary measure while the main part of it was to be remodeled and expanded to meet the growing needs of an expanding student body.

Along with an addition of new buildings came an influx of new staff members to handle the increasing student population. Led by the greatest number in the Math Department, the new certified staff increase totaled 16 by the end of the second semester.

The new teachers and their assignments were Peter Babb, English 1, English Skills 1; English 4, and Brown Bag Theatre Advisor; Eunice Campbell, Reading Skills, English 2, English Skills 2; Resource: Ann Carroll, Math Skills 1, Algebra 100, Algebra 2A; Kim Elder, Reading Skills B/L; English Skills B/L; English 1, Parenting; Gus Gurule, Learning Center B/L; Math 1 B/L; June Hardy, English 4, English 3, Reading Skills; Mike Jacobson, Algebra 100, Algebra 101, Plane Geometry, Michelino DeBlanc, Plane Geometry, Math Skills 1, Algebra 100 B/L; Janaka Param, Math Skills 2, Math Skills 1-2, Algebra 101; Jim Runyan, Earth/Physical Science; Ray Sands, English Skills 2, English 1; Mike Schrader, Driver's Education/Occupations: Ed Smith, Health, Driver's Training Coordinator; Debbie Strance, Math Skills 2, Algebra 101, Geometry 102; Keith Treichelt, English 1 Special Ed, U.S. History Special Ed, American Government Special Ed. Joining the La Paloma staff was Colleen Grinsell.

In addition to a change in the physical plant and the new staff came reassignment and new jobs for staff members. With the retirement of Ken Forlow, Jerry Hardt became the principal of La Paloma. Cathy Dickey was given the task of SIP Coordinator and her title was changed from vice-principal to assistant principal. Bonnie Tilton left the classroom and assumed control of the attendance office and was also titled assistant principal. Greg Wright kept the same basic job but expanded into assisting the Class of '91 with attendance and discipline and also was re-titled as assistant principal.

The biggest change in personnel came in the spring as a committee of 12 met the last of March to interview candidates for the principal's position. The committee narrowed the field of seven down to three and after further interviews, Gene Clare was offered the principal's job. From Indio High School in Southern California, Gene came on board officially after the close of regular school in June replacing Jack W. Ferrill, the retiring principal. Jack was one of the three long-term certified staff members retiring this year. Starting at Liberty in 1951, Jack was a P.E. teacher and coach for a number of years before moving into administration as a vice-principal. He became principal in 1985. Another retiree also started in the 50s at Liberty. Beginning in 1953, James Alves has taught continuously since that time except for 21 months in the armed services. The other retiree is Special Ed teacher Frank DeParsia. Frank came to Liberty in 1967 and completed his 36 total years of teaching this year.

Bob Glenn was selected as Teacher of the Year by his colleagues. Jo Anne Nash became the new Math Department Chairperson replacing Jerry Crawford, and Jack Ferrill and Lucy Wong shared Homecoming Grand Marshall honors. John Renterta was chosen as the new Mentor Teacher to assist in social studies for the next three years.

In March, Phil White, superintendent, requested a restructuring of DC/DC which was discussed and passed by the committee. Starting with the '90-'91 school year, the duties of DC/DC will be handled by the department chairs at their regular bi-monthly meetings.

Even at the board level there were major changes with the election of two new members and the reelection of one. Serving another four years is Joanne Byer who was joined at first time members Paula Widener and Ron Enos (a former Liberty teacher).

A first for the staff was the start of a certified newsletter, Liberty Lines, that was begun by the new Self Esteem Committee. Membership in the committee consisted of Carol Almas, Bill Batze, Barbara Clapponi, Cathy Dickey, Linda Gilliarducci, and Velma Gonzales. The Self Esteem Committee grew out of both the Faculty Senate move and a proposal to the SIP Site Council by Cathy and Bill. The classified staff continued to publish their Classified Connections newsletter. Also now on the scene this year were additional newsletters from the District Office, Alternative Education, the Principal, and GEP. GEP was installed as a component to better involve parents in their child's education.

Graduation requirements continued to change as the Board added another year of math bringing to a total of three needed to graduate, as well as four years of English passed last year. The Math Department made a recommendation that Math Skills be offered for 10 credits only and be determined by passing units of instruction over one or more years.

The yearbook staff wish Mr. Ferrill, Mr. DeParsia, and Mr. Alves a successful retirement, you have earned it.

With an influx of over 500 freshmen expected for the '90-'91 year, the school braced for the expansion planned for this decade.

New for the 1990 LION yearbook were three closing spreads that covered the seasons of the school year: fall, winter, and spring. This spread is the first of the three and is the fall one. From collecting in groups on the lawn at lunch to volleyball and band the students displayed their varied interests on campus. The band rehearsed in the summer and then performed for Homecoming and football games while the classes constructed floats for two weeks.
Ryan Lamunyon and Jeannine Cecchini share a quiet moment. Seniors work hard on their first place float.

Football dominated the fall season for the Lions. Suzie Moser face paints another girl for Homecoming.

Soccer moved to a new field during the season.

Maria Martin tries to drive in an away contest. Winterfest activities included this trike race.

Nina Kruger practices a speech in Drama.
Winter came to Liberty and with it some rain and more construction as students began to bring out the warm clothes, coats and sweatshirts.

From relaxing on the lawn outside the Music Building and at dances, to working in the classrooms, Liberty Lions displayed a variety of activities.

The Playmakers presented "Glimpses", a play about teenagers, written by teenagers, and presented by teenagers.
Spring sports, championship, car show. Senior Ball, relaxing with friends, enjoying the sunny and wet weather, looking to graduation, anticipating summer vacation, thinking about school in the fall, living life to its fullest; students and staff of Liberty turn traditional and contemporary faces to the world.

Coach Rich Barrios exhorts the troops to win another one. Christi Coalter intently studies the opposing pitcher.

Lovely legs of two senior boys grace annual Senior Ball. Enjoying a picture together, the chaperones pose for a moment.

Tom Proudfoot leads the band after being named the John Philip Souza Award winner. This is a traditional honor accorded the winner of the oldest recognition award for music at Liberty.

Thank You Hardworking Staff

Working as an assistant editor this year has been an adventure as well as an experience. With diligence and perseverance the staff has produced, in my opinion, one of the school's finest yearbooks. Assistant Editors, Laurie Peters and Monique Cozby, deserve credit just for putting up with my wackiness. They were always supportive of my ideas even when they knew it would take patience to see the final results. The staff was wonderful to work with. They were ready at the drop of a hat to run errands and find me more pictures. I must say that I am delighted with their willingness to work with me, even when I got a little too bossy! I consider this yearbook a great achievement that took an enormous amount of energy and time. The staff is lucky to have Mr. Batze as an advisor. He became the electric spark behind every ounce of effort put out by the staff. Mr. Batze had to put up with me about four times as much as anyone else on the staff and he never once lost his cool. Keep smiling guys, you never know when I have the camera! Mr. Batze, Thank-you ever so much.

Thank You
Assistant Editor
Octavia Poole
